Students Take to the Runway in Original Couture on Halloween to Benefit The American Cancer Society American InterContinental University Buckhead hosts fashion remix extravaganza

WHO: More than 10 student designers and graduates.

WHAT: Spotlight on the evolution and fusion of fashion with vintage designs from the 1950s through today's fast-changing fashion scene. View 50 years of great design on the runway at the student-produced "Fashion Remix Hits the Runway at AIU" Show.

Design students will trade their Halloween costumes to showcase original couture created to capture the unique styles of the last half century.

WHEN: Friday, Oct. 31 at 10 a.m.

WHERE: Doubletree Hotel Atlanta-Buckhead
3342 Peachtree Road, N.E. in Atlanta

TICKETS: A fundraiser for The American Cancer Society. Breast Cancer Pink Ribbon Cards will be available at the door for a minimum donation of $1.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Following the Fashion Show, attendees can participate in guided tours of the American InterContinental University Buckhead Design Department and Gallery.

For more information, contact Loretta Harris at (404) 965-6551.
